

A rustic outdoor dining table set with woven placemats, glassware, and gold cutlery. The table is made of light-colored wood. In the foreground, a round, light-brown woven placemat sits on the table. To its left is a small, light blue ceramic plate. To its right are gold-colored cutlery (fork, knife, and spoon) laid out. Behind the placemat, a black name card with white text "KRISTA CURRY" is visible, resting on a small wooden stand. Several clear glass wine glasses are scattered around the table. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with greenery and a wooden structure.

A close-up photograph showing a row of several stacks of folded white cotton napkins. The napkins are folded in a way that shows multiple layers, creating a rhythmic pattern of white and light brown (from the wood) as they recede into the background. They are resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The background is softly blurred, showing hints of greenery and a wooden chair, suggesting an outdoor or semi-outdoor dining setting.
